Liebe Musikfreunde

Im Jahre 1997 publizierte der Verein WASBE-Schweiz zum ersten Mal die Repertoireliste „Wind Music of Switzerland“. Eine Neuauflage erschien bereits 2001, anlässlich des internationalen WASBE-Kongresses in Luzern. Diese Publikation enthält eine Übersicht über „empfehlenswerte Blasorchesterliteratur von Schweizer Komponisten“. Sie war insofern ein Novum, als sie zwischen der Wettstückliste des Schweizerischen Blasorchesterverbandes und den Verlagskatalogen eine Lücke füllte, mit dem Ziel, in der Schweiz entstandene sinfonische Blasorchesterliteratur zu vermitteln.

Seit 2001 hat sich das Repertoire für Bläser in der Schweiz erfreulich weiterentwickelt. Neben den etablierten Komponisten haben verschiedene jüngere Komponisten begonnen für Bläserbesetzungen zu schreiben. Gefördert wurde diese Entwicklung beispielsweise durch Kompositionsaufträge der Eidgenössischen und Kantonalen Musikverbände, des Schweizerischen Brass Band Verbandes oder der Nationalen Jugend Brass Band der Schweiz, sowie zahlreiche Einzelaufträge von Blasorchestern und Privaten.

Zudem interessieren sich zunehmend auch solche Komponisten für bläserische Besetzungen, die zusätzlich in anderen Sparten, beispielsweise im Jazz oder in der neuen Musik tätig sind.

Angesichts dieser Entwicklungen legt nun WASBE-Schweiz eine erweiterte Neuauflage der Liste vor. Zahlreiche Komponisten werden erwähnt und neu sind auch Kompositionen für Brass Band in die Liste eingeflossen, denn WASBE-Schweiz ist überzeugt, dass Brass Bands gerade auch im Bereich der konzertanten, innovativen Bläserliteratur zu den tragenden Pfeilern des Bläserwesens gehören. Ebenso werden Werke aus dem Bereich der Unterhaltungs- oder Volksmusik aufgeführt, sofern sie einen sinfonischen Charakter aufweisen. Über diese Grenzen lässt sich lange streiten, was nicht unsere Absicht ist: wesentlich erscheint uns, das heutige Komponieren für Bläser in seiner ganzen Breite zu zeigen.

Vielleicht entdecken Sie mit der Liste „Wind Music of Switzerland“ neue Musik, die auch Eingang in Ihre Programme findet und vielleicht möchten Sie sich einen Eindruck von der musikalischen Vielfalt des Bläserwesens verschaffen – wir wünschen Ihnen bei der Lektüre viele neue Impulse.
